

The stringent law for the "Do Not Disturb" listing in New Jersey SHOULD NOT be relaxed. It took a long time to get this type of protection for one's privacy and it must be kept up. There should be no exceptions. Thank you.